

Civil War Museum, Fort Worth and lunch at Joe T. Garcia's

February 8, 2011

Depart FUMC South Parking Lot at 9:00 a.m. for a visit to The Fort Worth Civil War Museum and lunch at the famous Joe T Garcia's Mexican Restaurant.

This new museum is the largest of its kind west of the Mississippi River. It houses an extensive collection of artifacts from both the North and the South in addition to the largest collection of flags of any kind in the State of Texas. An expansive collection of women's and children's clothing from the Victorian Era is also part of the museum's offerings.

Experience and Enjoy:

- Ray Richey's Civil War Collection which includes Infantry, Cavalry, Artillery, Navy, Music, and Medicine exhibits.
- Judy Richey's Victorian Dress Collection of more than 300 stunning, original gowns which rotate on exhibit.
- The Texas Confederate Museum Collection from the United Daughters of the Confederacy and their extensive Texas artifacts including the largest collection of flags in the state.
- And much much more.

Following our museum visit we will enjoy lunch at Joe T. Garcia's Mexican Restaurant. The famous restaurant has been a landmark in Fort Worth since 1935.

Return to Irving by 3:00 p.m.

Price: $48.00 due before Jan. 25, 2011. Non-refundable. Name changes allowed.

Price includes deluxe motor coach transportation, entrance to museum, lunch, escort, driver gratuity. $2.00 if your fare will go help with expenses of Travel Fellowship.